

TENTATIVE RULINGS

FOR: November 2, 2016

The Court may exercise its discretion to disregard a late filed paper in law and motion matters. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1300(d).)

Unlawful Detainer Cases – No tentative ruling will be posted because access to records is not permitted until 60 days after the complaint is filed. Parties must appear for all unlawful detainer demurrers, motions to quash, and other matters. After 60 days, tentative rulings will be posted in accordance with the local rules.

Court Reporting Services – The Court does not provide official court reporters in proceedings for which such services are not legally mandated. These proceedings include civil law and motion hearings. If counsel want their civil law and motion hearing reported, they must arrange for a private court reporter to be present. Go to <http://napacountybar.org/court-reporting-services/> for information about local private court reporters. Attorneys or parties must confer with each other to avoid having more than one court reporter present for the same hearing.
